Also, I would like the ability to include social profiles in the contacts list. This would be great for companies where we have multiple social profiles to add to one contact. Fun app, but it has a bunch of bugs, here is my problem: - First of all, it's extremely buggy (my contacts are duplicated and when I try to save them it crashes) - I'm trying to add a contact (a friend) and it crashes as soon as I enter the email and name (sometimes I can send the email but it will crash when I try to add the contact). - I'm trying to send an email to a contact and it never sent, when I select the contact and click the send email button it shows an error (this happens with both email accounts) - The contacts in my phone are duplicated (not only the contacts of the app but of the phone too). For example, if I have
